

I am deeply concerned about the plans announced by Sinclair Broadcasting to air even parts of a documentary attacking John Kerry's anti-Vietnam war activities immediately before the presidential election.

While I will reserve my final judgment until after the broadcast, Sinclair has a record of questionable partisan activities that are inappropriate for a trustee of the public airwaves.

I urge the utmost scrutiny of this program and ongoing added scrutiny of Sinclair.